DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 4-6 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Aria et al. (US 2002/0133820) in view of Newberry et al. (US 5625406).

Claim 4, Aria teaches a broadcasting receiver configured such that a channel can be changed by comprising a channel UP/DOWN key, a broadcasting receiver comprising:

- an analog broadcasting receiving unit (100) for receiving analog broadcasting (see fig. 1; paragraph [0008]);
- a digital broadcasting receiving unit (100) for receiving digital broadcasting (see fig. 1; paragraph [0008]);

- means for acquiring information as to whether or not the same program is being broadcast in analog broadcasting and digital broadcasting, to judge whether or not there is simulcast (see fig. 68, 70; paragraph [0214]); and

Aria does not teach a broadcasting receiver configured such that a channel can be changed by comprising a channel UP/DOWN key, a broadcasting receiver comprising:

- means for erasing an analog channel, without user intervention, on the basis of an internal clock from a list in said channel UP/DOWN key.

Newberry teaches a broadcasting receiver configured such that a channel can be changed by comprising a channel UP/DOWN key, a broadcasting receiver comprising:

- means for erasing a channel (preferring digital channels), without user intervention, on the basis of an internal clock from a list in said channel UP/DOWN key (col. 2, lines 60-63, col. 3, lines 3-5, col. 4, lines 50-58).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have provided omission of channels in a guide without viewer intervention as taught by Newberry to the analog and digital simulcasting of Aria to illustrate to omit certain elements of the guide that are not required (col. 2, lines 60-63).

Claim 5, Aria teaches the broadcasting receiver further comprising:

- means for displaying on a screen a message ("same program now serving on digital BS") that the same program is being broadcast in digital broadcasting when analog broadcasting in simulcast is being received (fig. 68).

Claim 6, Aria teaches the broadcasting receiver wherein

- digital broadcasting in simulcast is received when a predetermined key (selecting to switch to digital BS) is operated in a state where said message is displayed (fig. 68; paragraph [0216]).

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
